

FLEX Magazine's Bikini Model Search

The Olympia Weekend and FLEX Magazine are proud to announce the 2007 FLEX Magazine's Bikini Model Search. Contestants will be judged on shape, body tone, symmetry, poise, overall condition and overall beauty. Contestants will be judged individually and in group comparisons.

There are no qualifications with the exception that you must be 18 years or older. No experience is necessary. The purpose is to have fun with the audience and show your unique stage presence and overall appearance.

Body Condition & Overall Beauty – 50% of Score

Judges will be looking for a fit, feminine body that display proper shape, symmetry and poise with overall condition and beauty. This is not a bodybuilding contest, so extreme muscularity will be negatively scored.

Stage Presence & Personality – 40% of Score

Contestants will be asked to walk in a Bikini and high heels across the stage. It is important to mention that 2 piece swimsuits are required, thongs are acceptable. No lewd acts will be allowed. You will simply turn and pose at each corner and again at the center of the stage. Judges will be looking for the competitor with the best stage presence that can convey her personality to the audience.

Audience Popularity – 10% of Score

The goal is to be charming, provoking and flirtatious, and to incite audience participation. The competition should be fun.
